

Dr. Powell, Coroner At Alexandria for Seven Years, Dies

Practiced Medicine There 35 Years and Once Served As Hospital Staff Chief

By a Staff Correspondent of The Star.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 14.—
Dr. Llewellyn Powell, 62, city coroner for seven years, died at his home last night. He suffered a stroke Monday.

Dr. Powell lived at 201 North Washington street. He was the son of Dr. Robert C. Powell, who also served as Alexandria coroner for several years.

Dr. Powell held the rank of major in the Army Medical Corps. He entered the service during the World War with the commission of lieutenant.

After graduating from Virginia

DR. LLEWELLYN POWELL

Military Institute in 1899, he was a former commander of the Augusta Military Institute at Fort Defiance, Va. He had practiced medicine in Alexandria for more than 35 years.
He obtained his medical degree at Columbia College, now George

Washington University. He was formerly chief of the staff of the Alexandria General Hospital and later became consulting staff member there and a staff member of Doctors' Hospital in Washington.

Dr. Powell was an active member of the Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons and several Scottish Rite bodies. He also was a member of the American Legion.

Dr. Powell was twice married, his first wife dying in 1918.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs.
Willie B. Powell; three sons, H. Ashton, Llewellyn, jr., and Robert C.
Powell; two daughters, Miss Grace
P. Powell and Miss Ann Boone Powell, and a sister, Mrs. Louis P.
Scott, all of Alexandria.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow from Christ Church with the Rev. Mr. Edmund Randolph Welles and the Rev. Dr.

Ernest A. de Bordenave, rector of St. Paul's Church, officiating. Interment will be in Arlington National Cemetery.

Forty Escape Strict Alexandria Auto Law

By a Staff Correspondent of The Star.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 14.—
The drive against stringent parking regulations in this city continued yesterday as Police Court Judge James R. Duncan threw out alley-parking charges against more than 40 merchants.

Three physicians, charged with violating the city's newly-revised parking meter law, also were dismissed without penalty.
